General Notice No. 286 of 2004.

MINISTRY OF ENERGY AND MINERAL DEVELOPMENT

GUIDELINES ON LICENSING OF PETROLEUM FACILITIES AND OPERATORS

(General Notice issued under Section 6 of the Petroleum Supply Act, 2003)

Introduction

In January 2003 the Ministry of Energy and Mineral Development (the Ministry) wrote to the Kampala City Council (KCC) to stop issuing new licences for construction of petroleum retail stations. Suspension of licences was for purposes of ensuring that development of new petrol stations in Kampala is in accordance-with the new guidelines to be issued by the Ministry. These guidelines are intended to serve that purpose.

Policy Context

In 1994 Government adopted a policy of free market economy driven by the private sector. Price control and bureaucratic resource allocations were abolished. Government also privatized its interests in the three oil-marketing companies, which were nationalized in the 1970s.

The Energy Policy for Uganda was adopted in 2002. The Policy covers, inter alia, the downstream petroleum subsector. After adoption of the Policy, the Ministry formulated a new legal framework to regulate the subsector on the principles of a free market with open access and fair competition. Industry regulation is therefore focused mainly on health, safety and environmental (HSE) standards; unless there are elements of unfair competition in the market.

The main goal of the Energy Policy is to meet energy needs of the population in an environmentally sustainable manner. The broad Policy objectives with respect to the downstream petroleum subsector are to:

- (a) establish demand for the resource;
- (b) increase access to modern affordable and reliable energy services;
- (c) improve energy governance and administration;

- (d) stimulate economic development; and
- (e) manage energy-related environmental impacts.

The strategy for achieving the above broad policy objectives are:

- (i) to prepare database on petroleum resources and build local capacity to acquire, access and evaluate the resource;
- (ii) to attract private capital and management in provision of petroleum services.;
- (iii) to promote and encourage competition;
- (iv) to create a transparent legal and regulatory framework;
- (v) to ensure energy supply security and reliability;
- (vi) to promote petroleum trade within the region; and
- (vii) to strengthen environmental monitoring in the sector.

These guidelines are intended to implement the Energy Policy in the above context.

Legal Context

The Petroleum Supply Act, 2003 (the Act) was enacted and came into force in November 2003. The Act repealed the Petroleum Act, Cap 97 of the 1964 Laws of Uganda and the Uganda Oil Board Statute of 1991. The Act also revoked the Petroleum Filling Stations Rules, S.I. 27-29 issued under the Urban Authorities Act, Cap 27 of the 1964 Laws of Uganda. The Act provides for anyone intending to enter the petroleum supply chain to apply to the Commissioner of Petroleum Supply (the Commissioner) for grant of a petroleum construction permit (the Permit) and/or grant of a petroleum operating license (the Licence).

For purposes of these guidelines, the petroleum supply chain covers petroleum import, export, re-export, storage, distribution and sale both at bulk consumer and retail outlets/stations.

Objectives of the Guidelines

The objective of the guidelines is to provide for a transparent, orderly and non-discriminative treatment of all applications to enter the petroleum supply chain. Existing facilities that currently do not meet the requirements of these guidelines will be required, within a given time frame, to re-align their facilities accordingly or closedown

Procedure for application

Application for a Permit and/or a Licence will be made in writing addressed to the Commissioner. Application will contain minimum information as listed below but applicants are advised to include any other information they consider will support their application.

Information Required

1. Name and address of applicant.
2. Corporate status of applicant; whether sole proprietorship, partnership, unincorporated business, incorporated private/public company, association or a cooperative. If registered, a copy of the registration certificate, memorandum & articles of association or constitution, list of directors or of the executive of the company or organisation, as the case may be shall be enclosed.
3. Location and ownership of sites where facilities are to be built. For each site, the applicant shall indicate whether local authority approval to construct facilities has been granted. In case where property is (to be) leased or rented from third parties, copy of agreement/contracts shall be availed.
4. Intended source/supplier of petroleum products.
5. Description of the project's over-all design and layout, type(s) of pumps, product tanks, piping, forecourt, office block, availability and source of power, water supply and communication, sanitation and drainage, and fencing of the facility.
6. Project cost estimates including operating capital to be employed. Indication of financial & technical resources available to the applicant including proof of necessary capital.
7. Organization structure and qualifications & experience of personnel to be employed to operate the system.
8. Undertaking to secure insurance protection against third party liability during both construction and operational phases.
9. A project brief giving likely and potential environmental impact of the project.
10. Description of surrounding area of the site for petroleum installation.
11. Description of safety programmes, equipment and plans for protection of occupational health, industrial safety and the environment during construction and operations of the facility.

Evaluation and Site Inspection

The Commissioner will evaluate the application for suitability of the location, standards of design and safety as a petroleum facility, competence or experience of operator, adequacy of investment resources, and general financial/economic viability. The Commissioner, acting as the lead agency and in consultation with the National Environment Management Authority (NEMA), will evaluate the environmental impact of the project and advise on mitigation measures to be undertaken. The evaluation process will include inspection of the site(s).

Application fees

Application fees are necessary to facilitate evaluation of the applications for permits and licences. A fee structure will be announced and gazetted in future. For the time being no fee will be charged or demanded.

Lifting of Ban in Kampala

With the issuance of these guidelines, the earlier ban on construction of new petrol stations in Kampala is hereby lifted. However, new stations must be constructed in line with these guidelines.

Guidelines are Interim

These Guidelines are interim and shall serve until Regulations are issued under the Petroleum Supply Act, 2003. The Guidelines may be amended by the Minister.
