2018 No. 42.

The Geographical Indications Regulations, 2018

(Under section 27(1) of the Geographical Indications Act, 2013, Act 8 of 2013)

IN EXERCISE of the powers conferred upon the Minister responsible for justice by section 27(1) of the Geographical Indications Act, 2013 these Regulations are made this 4th day of September, 2018.

PART I—PRELIMINARY

1. Title

These Regulations may be cited as the Geographical Indications Regulations, 2018.

2. Interpretation

In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires—

“Act” means the Geographical Indications Act, 2013;

“agent” means advocate of the High Court;

“competent authority” means any ministry, department or agency of the Government or local government;

“owner” means a person who applies and is registered as such for a Geographical Indication;

“producer” has the meaning assigned to it in section 2 of the Act;

“rectification” means correction, update or re-arrangement of the register, or any document on the register;

“register” means the register of geographical indications maintained under section 7 of the Act;

“registrar” means the registrar of geographical indications designated under section 6 of the Act;

“use” means use in any way, including without limitation, use as part of or in connection with—

- (a) any transaction including a purchase, sale, gift or exchange;
- (b) any importing or exporting;
- (c) any advertisement; or
- (d) any other related activity.

PART II—REGISTER OF GEOGRAPHICAL INDICATIONS

3. Powers of the registrar

(1) In the performance of the functions under the Act and these Regulations, the registrar shall have the power to—

- (a) require compliance with the Act and these Regulations;
- (b) issue notices in accordance with the Act and these Regulations;
- (c) register geographical indications under the Act and these Regulations;
- (d) remove a geographical indication from the register;
- (e) decline to register a geographical indication or recall a previously registered geographical indication;
- (f) call for information or seize records of a geographical indication;
- (g) correct or amend the register;
- (h) certify copies or extracts of documents from the register;
- (i) exercise such powers under the Act.

(2) Notwithstanding subregulation (1), nothing shall limit or affect the powers of the registrar under the Act or these Regulations.

4. Form of register

The register required to be kept by the registrar under section 7 of the Act, shall be maintained as an electronic database or in any other form that permits the information recorded or stored in the register to be readily inspected or reproduced in a usable form.

5. Content of register

(1) The register shall contain all the information required to be registered under the Act or these Regulations.

(2) For the avoidance of doubt, the register for geographical indications shall contain—

- (a) the filing date and application number of the application;
- (b) the name, address and nationality of the applicant, and the capacity in which the applicant is applying for registration;
- (c) the representation of the geographical indication;
- (d) the goods to which the geographical indication applies;
- (e) the quality, reputation or other characteristic of the goods for which the geographical indications is used;
- (f) where an objection is raised, the date and the name, address and nationality of the person raising the objection;
- (g) the date of publication of the application;
- (h) the address for service of the applicant; and
- (i) any other information required under the Act or these Regulations or that the registrar may consider appropriate.

6. Rectification of register.

(1) The registrar may rectify and update the register to ensure that the register is accurate.

(2) For purposes of this regulation, the registrar may remove from the register any information which—

- (a) is misleading;
- (b) is inaccurate;
- (c) is issued in error;
- (d) contains an entry or endorsement made in error;
- (e) contains an illegal endorsement;
- (f) is illegally or wrongfully obtained; or
- (g) a court has ordered the registrar to remove from the register.

(3) Subject to subregulation (2), the registrar shall before removing and information from the register give notice to the owner of a geographical indication to show cause why the information should not be removed from the register.

(4) Where the owner of a geographical indication fails to show cause under subregulation (3) within 30 days, the registrar shall proceed to remove the information from the register and state the reasons for the removal of the information.

(5) The registrar shall, within seven days after rectifying the register, notify the owner of the geographical indication, to which the rectification relates to surrender to the registrar, the certificate of that geographical indication.

(6) Subject to subregulation (5), the registrar shall issue a new certificate to reflect any changes made to the register where applicable.

7. Inspection of register.

(1) A person who wishes to inspect the register or any document in the register, or extract from the register shall make an application to the registrar in Form 1 specified in Schedule 1, upon payment of the fees prescribed in Schedule 2.

(2) The registrar may prescribe the time and set conditions relating to inspection of the register.

(3) A ministry, department or agency of Government shall not be required to pay any fee for a copy of any document in the register which is required by that ministry, department or agency of Government in the performance of its functions.

PART III—REGISTRATION OF GEOGRAPHICAL INDICATIONS

8. Classification of goods

For purposes of registration of geographical indications, goods are classified in accordance with Schedule 3 to these Regulations.

9. Homonymous indications

(1) Subject to section 5(3) of the Act, a homonymous indication is excluded from protection as a geographical indication.

(2) Where an application for a geographical indication is a homonymous indication to an already registered geographical indication, the registrar shall indicate the material factors differentiating the application from the registered geographical indications and particulars of protective measures adopted by the applicant, to ensure consumers of such goods are not misled in consequence of such registration.

(3) For purposes of determining whether the registrar may accept the application in sub regulation (2), the registrar shall apply the principle of prior in tempore potior juris.

10. Geographical indications excluded from registration

Geographical indications excluded from protection under section 5 of the Act are not eligible for registration.

Application for registration of geographical indications

11. Application for registration of geographical indication

(1) An application for the registration of a geographical indication shall be made to the registrar in Form 2 specified in Schedule 1 upon payment of the fees prescribed in Schedule 2.

(2) An application made under subregulation (1), shall be in respect of one geographical indication.

(3) Where a geographical indication contains a word or words in characters other than roman numerals, or in words other than words in the English language there shall be endorsed on the application form a sufficient translation as the case may be to the satisfaction of the Registrar.

(4) All terms, signs and symbols used in the application shall be used consistently throughout the application and shall be the terms, signs and symbols generally accepted in the relevant field.

12. Amendment or withdrawal of application

(1) An application to amend or withdraw an application for registration of a geographical indication shall be made to the registrar in Form 3, set out in Schedule 1, upon payment of a prescribed fee in Schedule 2.

(2) An application made under subregulation (1), shall be made any time before the registrar has—

- (a) registered the application for registration of the geographical indication; or
- (b) issued notification of refusal to register the geographical indication.

(3) Where an application under subregulation (1), is made by more than one person, the application for registration of a geographical indication may only be withdrawn with the consent of all applicants who signed that application.

(4) For the avoidance of doubt, an amendment made in subregulation (1) shall not be made in relation to—

- (a) the description of the goods; or
- (b) the geographical territory to which the application relates.

(5) Where an amendment has been made to an application for registration of a geographical indication, any further amendment shall only be made with leave of the registrar.

(6) The registrar may reject an application to amend an application for registration of a geographical indication where the amendment would have the effect of extending the specification beyond that which is disclosed in the application for registration of a geographical indication, in order to deceive or mislead the public as to the quality, reputation or other characteristic of the goods.

(7) Where the registrar rejects an application made under subregulation (1), the registrar shall notify the applicant of his or her decision within 14 days from the date of making the decision.

13. Examination of application

(1) Upon receipt of an application for the registration of a geographical indication in respect of any good, the registrar shall examine the application for registration of the geographical indication in accordance with sections 5 and 9 of the Act.

(2) Upon examination of the application under subregulation (1), the registrar may—

- (a) accept the application;
- (b) accept the application subject to such conditions or limitations as he or she may think right to impose; or
- (c) reject the application.

(3) Where the registrar objects to the application, he or she shall inform the applicant of the objection in writing within 30 days of receipt of the application.

(4) Where an application is similar to a registered geographical indication or application for registration of a geographical indication, the examination shall take into account the registered geographical indication and consider whether there are substantial differences between the application for registration of a geographical indication and the registered geographical indication.

14. Publication of application

(1) Where the registrar is satisfied that an application for registration of a geographical indication meets the requirements of the law, the application shall be published in the Gazette or in any media prescribed by the registrar.

(2) Subject to subregulation (3), the publication shall be in Form 4, specified in Schedule 1, upon payment of fees prescribed in Schedule 2.

(3) Subject to subregulation (1), the registrar shall publish the following particulars in respect of an application for registration of a geographical indication—

- (a) the application number;
- (b) the filing date of the application;
- (c) the name, address and nationality of the applicant;
- (d) the name and address of the agent, if any;
- (e) the representation of a geographical indication;

- (f) the goods to which the geographical indication applies;
- (g) the manner in which the geographical indication is to be used and any conditions under which the geographical indication may be used;
- (h) the quality, reputation or other characteristics of the goods;
- (i) the demarcation of the geographical area to which the geographical indication applies; and
- (j) the time allowed for the lodging of objections to registration of the geographical indication.

(4) A person may, within the 60 days from the date of publication of an application for registration of a geographical indication, in the gazette or in any media prescribed by the registrar, give notice of objection to the registration of a geographical indication to the registrar.

15. Objection to registration of application

(1) A person may, within 60 days from the date of publication of an application for registration of a geographical indication, give notice of objection to the registration of a geographical indication to the registrar.

(2) A notice of objection to the registration of a geographical indication, referred to in section 10(2) of the Act, and under subregulation (1), shall be in Form 5, set out in Schedule 1, upon payment of prescribed fees in Schedule 2.

(3) The registrar shall upon receipt of a notice of objection immediately send a copy of the notice of objection to the applicant.

(4) Subject to subregulation (3), the applicant shall, within 30 days from receipt of the notice of objection, file with the registrar a counterstatement in Form 6, set out in Schedule 1, setting out the grounds on which the applicant relies as supporting the application for registration of a geographical indication.

(5) Upon receipt of the counterstatement, the registrar shall immediately send or cause to be served a copy of the counterstatement on the person objecting, and within 30 days from the receipt of the counterstatement, the person objecting shall adduce such evidence by way of statutory declaration, in support of the objection, which he or she shall file with the registrar.

(6) Where the applicant of a geographical indication has not filed with the registrar a counterstatement or the person objecting to the application of the geographical indication has not adduced evidence in support of the objection or in response to the counterstatement, within the prescribed time, the registrar shall proceed to give notice of the date of hearing.

(7) Upon complete filing of the evidence by both the applicant and the person objecting to the application, the registrar shall give notice to both parties of the date of hearing, and that date shall be at least 14 days after the date of the notice, unless the parties consent to a shorter notice.

16. Notification of grant to register geographical indication

(1) Where an application for registration of a geographical indication is granted, the registrar shall notify the applicant of his or her decision.

(2) The notification under subregulation (1) shall be made in Form 7, set out in Schedule 1.

17. Notification of refusal to register geographical indication

(1) Where the registrar rejects an application to register a geographical indication, the registrar shall immediately notify the applicant of his or her decision.

(2) The notification under subregulation (1) shall be in Form 7, set out in Schedule 1.

18. Registration of geographical indication

(1) Upon notification of the grant to register a geographical indication, the applicant shall pay the fees prescribed in Schedule 2 for the registration of the geographical indication.

(2) Upon payment of the fees, under subregulation (1), the registrar shall register the geographical indication in the register and shall issue a certificate of registration in Form 8, set out in Schedule 1.

19. Renewal of registration

(1) An application for renewal of registration of a geographical indication shall be made to the registrar in Form 9 set out in Schedule 1, three months before the expiration of the last registration of the geographical indication, upon payment of fees prescribed in Schedule 2.

(2) Where the registrar has not received an application for renewal of registration of a geographical indication in accordance with subregulation (1), the registrar may notify the owner of the expiry date of the registration of the geographical indication before the expiration of the registration of the geographical indication.

(3) Where at the expiry date of the last registration of a geographical indication, an application under subregulation (1) has not been made to the registrar, the registrar shall publish in the Gazette or other media prescribed by the Registrar, the expiration of protection of the registered geographical indication.

(4) Notwithstanding subregulation (3), an application for renewal of registration of the geographical indication may be made to the registrar in Form 9 set out in Schedule 1, one month from the date of publication of expiration of protection of the geographical indication.

(5) Subject to subregulation (4), the registrar shall renew the registration of the geographical indication upon payment of renewal fees and late registration fees prescribed in Schedule 2.

(6) Where, at the expiration of one month from the date of publication, an application for renewal of the last registration of a geographical indication has not been made to the registrar, the registrar shall remove the geographical indication from the register.

(7) Where a geographical indication has been removed from the register, the registrar shall cause to be entered in the register, a record of the removal and of the cause of the removal.

(8) Notwithstanding subregulation (7), an application for renewal or renewal and restoration of a geographical indication to the register may be made to the registrar in Form 9 set out in Schedule 1, upon payment of fees prescribed in Schedule 2.

(9) The registrar may restore a mark of a geographical indication to the register, upon receipt of an application in subregulation (7), subject to conditions.

(10) Upon the renewal or renewal and restoration of a geographical indication, the registrar shall notify the owner, and shall publish the restored geographical indication in the Gazette or a media prescribed by the registrar.

PART IV — GEOGRAPHICAL INDICATIONS ON THE REGISTER.

20. Removal from the register or alteration of conditions

(1) An application to the registrar under section 12 of the Act for removal from the register or alteration of conditions of registration of a registered geographical indication shall be made to the registrar in Form 10, set out in Schedule 1, upon payment of fees prescribed in Schedule 2.

(2) The application shall be accompanied by a statement setting out the reasons for the proposed removal of a geographical indication or alteration of conditions of registration.

(3) Upon receipt of an application made under subregulation (1), the registrar shall cause the application to be published in the Gazette or in any media prescribed by the registrar.

(4) Where the person applying for removal from the register or alteration of conditions of registration of a registered geographical indication is not the owner, the registrar shall notify the owner immediately.

(5) The owner of the geographical indication shall, within 30 days from the date of notification under subregulation (4), file a reply to the application under subregulation (1).

(6) Subject to subregulation (5), where the registrar receives the counterstatement by the owner of the geographical indication; where necessary, regulation 15(5), (6), and (7) shall apply with the necessary modifications on the application made under subregulation (1).

21. Intervention by third parties

(1) A person other than an owner alleging an interest in a geographical indication in respect of which an application is made under regulation

19 (1), may within 30 days from the date of publication of the application under 19(3), apply to the registrar for leave to intervene, stating in the application the nature of the interest.

(2) An application made under subregulation (1), shall be made to registrar in Form 10 set out in Schedule 1, upon payment of the fees prescribed in Schedule 2.

(3) The registrar may grant or refuse the application made under subregulation (1), after calling for representation of the parties concerned, and upon such terms and conditions as the registrar deems fit.

22. Notification of removal from the register or alteration of conditions

(1) Where an application for removal from register or alteration of conditions of registration of a geographical indication has been granted or is granted subject to conditions or limitations, the registrar shall notify—

- (a) the owner of the geographical indication; or
- (b) the applicant not being the owner of the geographical indication, of his or her decision.

(2) Notification under subregulation (1), shall be made in Form 7, set out in Schedule 1.

23. Notification of refusal to remove from the register or alteration of conditions

(1) Where the registrar rejects an application to remove from the register or alter conditions of registration of a geographical indication, the registrar shall immediately notify the applicant of his or her decision.

(2) The notification under subregulation (1) shall be in Form 7 set out in Schedule 1.

24. Invalidation of a geographical indications

An application to invalidate a geographical indication under section 13(1) of the Act, shall be made to the court by notice of motion.

25. Transfer

Where the responsibility of administration of a registered geographical indication is transferred from the owner of a geographical indication to another person in accordance with section 17 (2) of the Act, the transferee as an administrator shall make an application to the registrar in Form 11 set out in Schedule 1, upon payment of fees prescribed in Schedule 2.

PART V — APPLICATIONS AND NOTIFICATIONS TO THE REGISTRAR

26. Agents

(1) Except as otherwise required by these Regulations—

- (a) an application, request or notice which is required or permitted by the Act or these Regulations to be made or given to the registrar;
- (b) any communication between an applicant or a person making the request or giving the notice and the registrar; and
- (c) any communication between the owner of a geographical indication and the registrar or the court or any other persons, may be signed, made or given by or through an agent.

(2) An applicant, a person making a request or giving a notice, or an owner may appoint an agent to act for them in any proceedings or matter before the registrar under the Act and these Regulations by filing with the registrar, Form 13 set out in Schedule 1.

(3) In the case of appointment of an agent, service upon the agent of any document relating to the proceedings any matter shall be taken to be service upon the person appointing the agent and any communication directed to be made to that person in respect of the proceedings or any matter may be addressed to their agent, and all attendances upon the registrar relating to the proceedings or matter may be made by or through the agent.

(4) Subject to this regulation, the registrar may require the personal signature or presence of an applicant, opponent, an owner or any person who has an interest in an application before the registrar.

27. Form of application to the registrar

(1) All applications made under the Act and these Regulations shall be made in the prescribed form or in writing where there is no prescribed form and accompanied where applicable, by the relevant supporting evidence and evidence of payment of the prescribed fees.

(2) The Registrar may require such forms to be submitted in electronic format and the forms shall be submitted in such a manner as to permit automated input of the content into an electronic system such as by character recognition or scanning.

28. Fees

(1) The fees specified in Schedule 2 shall be payable in respect of the matters required by the Act or these Regulations.

(2) Where an applicant withdraws an application under these Regulations, the applicant shall forfeit any fees paid with regards to filing of the application.

PART VI—MISCELLANEOUS

29. Address of service

(1) The registrar shall require an applicant, opponent or agent, or an owner of a geographical indication, who does not reside or carry on business within Uganda to give an address for service within Uganda, and that address shall be treated as the actual address of that person for all purposes connected with the matter in question.

(2) An applicant for registration of a geographical indication shall provide an address for service for entry in the register and that address shall be entered, in the register.

(3) Where no address for service is entered in the register, the registrar shall treat the trade or business address of the owner as entered in the register, as the address for service for all purposes connected with the registration.

(4) A written communication addressed to an applicant or an owner at an address given by him or her, or treated by the registrar, as his or her address for service shall be deemed to be properly addressed.

(5) Where, at any time, the registrar doubts the continued availability of an address for service entered in the register, the registrar shall by letter or electronic communication to his or her trade or business address in the register request the person for whom it is entered, to confirm the address for service.

(6) If within three months after making the request under subregulation (5) the registrar receives no confirmation of the address, the registrar shall strike off an application made under subregulation (2), from the register.

(7) Notice for any impending removal of a geographical indication from the register shall be sent to the last known physical, business or email address of the owner

30. Review of registrar's decision

(1) A person aggrieved by a decision of the registrar under the Act or these Regulations, may apply to the registrar to review the decision.

(2) An application for review in subregulation (1), shall be in Form 14 set out in Schedule 1, upon payment of the fees prescribed in Schedule 2.

(3) A person may apply for review of the registrar's decision upon the following grounds –

- (a) discovery of new and important material facts or evidence which, after the exercise of due diligence was not within the person's knowledge or could not be produced by him or her at the time when the decision was made;
- (b) on account of some mistake or error apparent on the face of the record; or
- (c) for any sufficient cause.

31. Appeals to court

Notwithstanding regulation 30, a person aggrieved by a decision of the registrar under the Act or these Regulations, may within 60 days from the date of that decision appeal to High Court, against the decision by way of notice of motion.

32. Extension of time

(1) Where the registrar is satisfied that the circumstances justify an extension of the time for doing any act or taking any proceeding under these Regulations, not being a time expressly provided in the Act, the registrar may extend the time upon such notice to other parties, and proceedings, and upon such terms as he or she may direct, and the extension may be granted where the time has expired for doing the act or taking the proceedings.

(2) An application for extension of time under subregulation (1), shall be made to the registrar in Form 15 set out in Schedule 1, upon payment of fees prescribed in Schedule 2.

33. Offences and penalties

(1) A person who fraudulently sells or transfers the registration of a geographical indication commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding forty eight currency points or imprisonment not exceeding two years, or both.

(2) A person who forges or utters a forgery purporting it to be the consent of the owner for purposes of transfer of registration of a geographical indication owner commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding forty eight currency points or imprisonment not exceeding two years, or both.

(3) Subject to subsection (1) and (2), a court may in addition to the penalty imposed, order for other remedies.

(4) A person who deliberately destroys any document or evidence relating to registration of a geographical indication or who deliberately conceals information from the registrar commits an offence and is liable, on conviction, to a fine not exceeding forty eight currency points or imprisonment not exceeding two years, or both.

DATE OF ASSENT:                      20th December, 2017.

Date of Commencement:    5th October, 2018.

NOW THEREFORE be it enacted by Parliament as follows:

1. Interpretation.

In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires—

“Conference” means the International Conference on the Great Lakes;

“Conference Secretariat” means the Secretariat of the International Conference on the Great Lakes;

“member states” means the twelve core member states of the International Conference on the Great Lakes Region, namely the Republic of Angola, the Republic of Burundi, the Central African Republic, the Republic of the Congo, the Democratic Republic of the Congo, the Republic of Kenya, the Republic of Rwanda, the Republic of South Sudan, the Republic of the Sudan, the United Republic of Tanzania, the Republic of Uganda and the Republic of Zambia;

“Minister” means the Minister responsible for foreign affairs;

“Ministry” means the Ministry responsible for foreign affairs;

“Pact” means the Pact on Security, Stability and Development in the Great Lakes Region signed in Nairobi, Kenya on the 15th day of December 2006 as prescribed in the Schedule to this Act;

“Protocols” means the protocols adopted or subsequently adopted under the Pact.

2. Pact to have force of law in Uganda.

(1) The Pact as set out in the Schedule to this Act shall have the force of law in Uganda.

International Conference on the Great Lakes Region
(Implementation of the Pact On Security, Stability and Development
Act 11                      in the Great Lakes Region) Act                      2018

(2) Without prejudice to the general effect of subsection (1), all rights, powers, liabilities, obligations and restrictions created or arising by or under the Pact and all remedies and procedures provided for by or under the Pact shall be recognised and available in law and shall be enforceable and allowed in Uganda.

3. Finances.

(1) The finances for enforcing the Pact in Uganda shall consist of—

- (a) money appropriated by Parliament to the Ministry for the purposes of the Pact; and
- (b) grants or donations from the Government or other sources made with approval of the Minister and Minister responsible for finance.

(2) Subject to article 159 of the Constitution of the Republic of Uganda, for the purposes of providing any sums required for giving effect to the Pact under this section, the Minister responsible for finance may, on behalf of Government, make such arrangements as are necessary or raise loans by creation and issuance of securities bearing such rates of interest and subject to such conditions as to repayment, redemption or otherwise as the Minister considers fit.

(3) A grant, donation or loan received by the Government for purposes of the Pact shall be paid into and form part of the Consolidated Fund and shall be available in the manner in which funds from the Consolidated Fund are available.

4. Immunities and privileges of employees.

(1) A person who is employed in the service of the Conference in Uganda, who is a citizen of a member state other than Uganda, shall—

International Conference on the Great Lakes Region
(Implementation of the Pact On Security, Stability and Development
Act 11                      in the Great Lakes Region) Act                      2018

- (a) be immune from civil process with respect to acts performed by them in their official capacity; and
- (b) be accorded such immunities from immigration restrictions and alien registration as the Member States may determine.

(2) Experts and consultants rendering services to the Conference in Uganda shall be accorded such immunities and privileges as may be agreed by member states.

5. Status, immunities and privileges of the Conference.

(1) The Conference shall be accorded such status, capacity, immunities, privileges and exemptions in Uganda as may be agreed upon by the member states.

(2) Members of the organs and institutions of the Conference shall be accorded such immunities and privileges as may be agreed upon by the member states.

6. Subsequent amendment of the Pact.

Where, after the commencement of this Act, the Pact is amended or modified in accordance with the provisions of article 34 of the Pact, and ratified under article 123 of the Constitution of the Republic of Uganda, the Minister shall cause a copy of the amendment or modification to be laid before Parliament; and the amendment or modification shall, for the purposes of this Act, come or be deemed to have come into operation on the date it is laid before Parliament.

7. Regulations.

(1) The minister may, in consultation with the line ministry, by statutory instrument, make regulations to give effect to the provisions of this Act.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), the minister shall make regulations for—

International Conference on the Great Lakes Region
(Implementation of the Pact On Security, Stability and Development
Act 11                      in the Great Lakes Region) Act                      2018
