Procedure on criminal conviction

28. punishment or both, on account of the conviction for the offence of which he or she has been adjudged guilty, without any of the proceedings prescribed under the rules of procedure of these Regulations.

29. (1) Where the Chief Registrar or the responsible officer considers it necessary to institute disciplinary proceedings against a judicial officer other than a Judge, on the ground of misconduct which, if proved, would justify dismissal from the service, the Chief Registrar or the responsible officer shall, after any preliminary investigations, which he or she considers necessary—

Misconduct

not justifying

30. (1) Whenever the Chief Registrar or responsible officer considers it necessary to institute disciplinary proceedings against a judicial officer but is of the opinion that the misconduct alleged, if proved would not be serious enough to warrant dismissal under regulation 29, he or she shall, after any preliminary investigation which he or she considers necessary, forward to the judicial officer a statement of the charges against the judicial officer and shall call upon him or her to state in writing before a day to be specified, any grounds on which the judicial officer relies to exculpate himself or herself.

(2) If the judicial officer does not furnish a reply within the specified period or does not, in the opinion of the Chief Registrar or the responsible officer exculpate himself or herself, the Chief Registrar or the responsible officer shall forward to the Secretary a report on the case together with copies of the charges preferred against the judicial officer, his or her recommendations and the judicial officer's reply if any.

(3) If, on consideration of the report, including the grounds, if any, upon which the officer relies to exculpate himself or herself, the Commission, is of the opinion that no further investigation is necessary, it may immediately determine the punishment, other than dismissal, which should be imposed on the judicial officer.

(4) If the Commission, on consideration of the report, is of the opinion that the matter should be further investigated, it shall inquire into the matter in a manner, as it deems necessary.

(5) Notwithstanding subregulations (1), (2), (3) and (4), if at any stage during proceedings taken under this regulation—

(a) it appears to the Commission that the offence if proved would justify dismissal; or

(b) the Commission considers that if the offence is proved, proceedings for the retirement of the judicial officer from the service on grounds of public interest would be more appropriate, the proceedings so taken shall be discontinued and the procedure prescribed in regulation 29 shall be followed.

33. (1) If the Chief Registrar or the responsible officer considers that the conduct of a judicial officer who is serving on contract is unsatisfactory, he or she shall make a report to that effect to the Secretary and the Commission shall determine what action, otherwise than in accordance with the terms of the contract, should be taken regarding the officer in respect of whom the report has been made.
