ACTS

SUPPLEMENT No. 1

2nd May, 2008.

ACTS SUPPLEMENT

to The Uganda Gazette No. 24 Volume CI dated 2nd May, 2008.

Printed by UPPC, Entebbe, by Order of the Government.

Act 1

Local Governments (Amendment) Act

2008

THE LOCAL GOVERNMENTS (AMENDMENT) ACT, 2008

An Act to amend the Local Governments Act to remove the compulsory membership of every village resident to a village council and to provide for every Ugandan citizen of eighteen years and above residing in a village to be a member of a village council if willing; to make every person resident in the village bound by the decisions of the village council; to provide for the Electoral Commission to maintain a register of persons willing to be members of a village council; to provide for written nominations for elections at the village, parish or ward, or county council and for sponsorship of persons by political parties or political organisations to be nominated for elections to the village, parish or ward, or county council; to provide for the Electoral Commission to appoint nomination dates, campaign periods and election dates to the village, parish or ward, or county councils; and to provide for the Electoral Commission to resolve complaints during the electoral process of local councils.

DATE OF ASSENT: 24th April, 2008.

Date of Commencement: 2nd May, 2008.

BE IT ENACTED by Parliament as follows:

1. Amendment of Cap. 243.

The Local Governments Act, in this Act referred to as the principal Act is amended in section 46—

(a) by substituting for subsection (1)(c) the following—

“(c) at the village level, all persons of eighteen years or above residing in that village who are willing to be members”;

(b) by inserting immediately after subsection (3) the following—

“(4) Notwithstanding subsection (1)(c) a decision taken by a village council is binding on all persons residing in the village.

(5) The Electoral Commission shall compile, maintain, revise and update voters’ registers in respect of persons willing to be members of a village and parish or ward or county council”.

2. Amendment of section 161 of principal Act.

Section 161 of the principal Act is amended—

(a) by substituting for subsection (2) the following—

“(2) Nomination of candidates may be made for elections at the village, parish or ward, or county council by a political organisation or political party sponsoring a candidate or by a candidate standing for election as an independent candidate without being sponsored by a political organisation or political party.”;

(b) by substituting for subsections (3) and (4) the following—

“(3) The Electoral Commission shall publish in the Gazette and the local media a nomination day and the time when candidates who wish to stand for election as chairperson of a village, parish or ward, or county council shall be nominated.

(4) The Electoral Commission shall designate a period of at least seven days after nomination, for candidates nominated under subsection (3) to campaign for the election”.

3. Insertion of new section 161A of principal Act.

The principal Act is amended by inserting immediately after section 161 the following—

“161A. Electoral Commission to appoint election day.

The Electoral Commission shall, by notice in the Gazette and the local media, appoint a day for elections at the village, parish or ward and county level.”

4. Insertion of new sections 168A, 168B and 168C of principal Act.

The principal Act is amended by inserting immediately before section 169 the following—

“168A. Non citizens not to be members of local councils.

For the avoidance of doubt a person shall not be a member of a local council unless that person is a citizen of Uganda.

168B. Electoral Commission to settle disputes.

For the avoidance of doubt the powers of the Electoral Commission to settle disputes in relation to elections under the Electoral Commission Act shall apply to elections at local councils.

168C. Transitional provision.

A person elected councillor under this Act after the commencement of the Local Governments (Amendment) Act, 2008 shall be deemed to have been elected together with the local government councillors for the time being in office”.

STATUTORY INSTRUMENTS

2008 No. 20.

The Public Finance and Accountability (Contingencies Fund) Regulations, 2008.

*(Under sections 10 and 46 of the Public Finance and Accountability Act, 2003.
Act No. 6 of 2003)*

IN EXERCISE of the powers conferred on the Minister by sections 10 and 46 of the Public Finance and Accountability Act, 2003, these Regulations are made this 26th day of February, 2008.

1. Title.

These Regulations may be cited as the Public Finance and Accountability (Contingencies Fund) Regulations, 2008.

2. Application.

These Regulations apply to all ministries., departments, or agencies of Government.

3. Object of Regulations.

The object of these Regulations is—

- (a) to provide for the allocation of monies to the Contingencies Fund;
- (b) to prescribe procedures for accessing monies from the Contingencies Fund;
- (c) to provide for the management and administration of the Contingencies Fund; and
- (d) to provide for accountability for funds appropriated for purposes of the Contingencies Fund.

4. Interpretation.

In these Regulations, unless the context otherwise requires --

“accounting officer” means a person designated as such under section 8 of the Public Finance and Accountability Act, 2003;

“Act” means the Public Finance and Accountability Act, 2003;

“beneficiary” means a ministry, an agency or department of Government;

“contingency” means a need for government expenditure which could not have been foreseen (and therefore not budgeted for) and cannot be postponed without detriment to the public interest;

“currency point” has the meaning given in the First Schedule to the Public Finance and Accountability Act, 2003;

“Minister” means the Minister responsible for finance.

5. The Contingencies Fund.

(1) Subject to section 10 of the Act, there is established a Contingencies Fund to cater for national emergencies.

(2) The Contingencies Fund shall comprise—

(a) a permanent capital of Shs. 2,000,000,000 (Uganda Shillings two billion only); and

(b) such other funds as may be appropriated by Parliament for the purposes of the Contingencies Fund.

(3) For the avoidance of doubt, the Contingencies Fund shall be separate from the Consolidated Fund.

6. Administration.

Subject to the provisions of the Act and of these Regulations, the Contingencies Fund shall be administered by the Accountant General.

7. Conditions for use of the Contingencies Fund

(1) The Contingencies Fund shall be used only in cases of emergency and shall not be used to finance under-budgeting.

(2) The Minister may, if he or she is satisfied that an urgent need has arisen for expenditure which could not have been foreseen, and which cannot be postponed without detriment to the public interest, authorise, by warrant signed by him or her, addressed to the Accountant General, advances from the Contingencies Fund for the purposes of meeting that expenditure.

(3) A withdrawal from the Contingencies Fund, shall be under the following circumstances—

- (a) where a case of emergency is demonstrated by considerable reduction in the access to basic needs of a given population or society which the respective local authority cannot remedy; and
- (b) where it is demonstrated that it is not possible to postpone other activities within the given vote to enable virement.

8. Eligibility of beneficiary.

Funds shall be advanced to a beneficiary, where the Minister is satisfied that—

- (a) there has arisen an urgent and unforeseen need for expenditure for which no other provision exists; and
- (b) it is in the public interest that funds should be provided to meet that need prior to the time when the approval of Parliament shall be sought.

9. Operation of the Contingencies Fund

The following principles shall govern the operation of the Contingencies Fund—

- (a) the Contingencies Fund shall constitute a special fund whose proceeds at the end of the year shall not be repaid to the Consolidated Fund but, shall be retained for the purpose for which the Contingencies Fund was established;
- (b) the Contingencies Fund shall operate a separate bank account in the Bank of Uganda into which all funds released for the purpose shall be deposited and similarly, all replenishments shall be deposited;

- (c) the Accountant General shall be responsible for operating the bank account referred to in paragraph (b); and
- (d) where an advance is made, a supplementary estimate for the purpose of replacing the amount advanced shall be laid before Parliament at its next sitting.

10. Procedure for release and utilisation of funds from the Contingencies Fund.

A beneficiary requiring funding from the Contingencies Fund shall comply with the following procedure—

- (a) the accounting officer shall make a written request to the Secretary to the Treasury indicating the occurrence of a need that meets the eligibility criteria and conditions for use of funds from the Contingencies Fund;
- (b) the Secretary to the Treasury shall, where satisfied, request the Minister to issue a warrant;
- (c) the vote having the emergency shall access the monies in the manner most convenient for its management either through its Treasury General Account in the Bank of Uganda or in any other manner authorised by the Accountant General;
- (d) the authority to make payments will be given by the accounting officer of the vote receiving the advance from the Contingencies Fund;
- (e) no commitment shall be made beyond the advance authorised; and
- (f) all funds received shall belong to the respective beneficiary, and any unexpended balances at the end of the emergency shall be refunded to the Consolidated Fund.

11. Replenishment of advances made from the Contingencies Fund.

(1) A beneficiary that receives funding from the Contingencies Fund shall be, and shall remain a debtor of the Contingencies Fund until full replenishment from the Consolidated Fund has been made.

(2) The following procedure shall be followed in the replenishment of monies advanced from the Contingencies Fund---

- (a) where an advance has been made from the Contingencies Fund, a supplementary estimate for the purpose of replacing the amount advanced shall be laid before Parliament in accordance with regulation 9(d);
- (b) the department which receives the advance from the Contingencies Fund shall be responsible for making a request for a supplementary estimate to replenish the Contingencies Fund;
- (c) the release shall be paid directly into the Contingencies Fund and the respective accounting officer shall be requested to make necessary entries to enable the capturing of the contingency expenditure as voted.

12. Accountability.

(1) All requests made and funded from the Contingencies Fund shall be used to prepare requests to Parliament for approval of supplementary expenditure.

(2) The beneficiary shall account for the expenditure as part of the expenses for the vote, except that the relevant accounting officer shall prepare a justification for the supplementary estimate showing the purpose for which the funds are advanced.

(3) The records of the Contingencies Fund shall reflect the beneficiary as a debtor until the funds advanced are replenished.

(4) The Accountant General shall prepare financial statements of the Contingencies Fund within three months after the end of the financial year in accordance with the Public Finance and Accountability Act, 2003 and submit them for audit.

(5) Movement of funds from the Contingencies Fund during a financial year shall be reported separately by the Accountant General.

(6) The supplementary and actual expenditure shall be recorded and reported by the vote receiving the advance.

13. Audit.

The Contingencies Fund shall be audited by the Auditor General in accordance with the Act.

14. Offences and penalties.

A person who contravenes regulation 7, 10 or 12 commits an offence and is liable, on conviction to imprisonment not exceeding three months.

15. Outstanding funds.

The sum of two hundred and fifty million shillings set aside for the Contingencies Fund under the Contingencies Fund Act repealed by the Public Finance and Accountability Act 2003 shall form part of the funds of the Contingencies Fund under these Regulations.

DR. EZRA SURUMA,
Minister of Finance, Planning and Economic Development.
