S T A T U T O R Y I N S T R U M E N T S

2014 No. 48.

The Uganda Tourism (Tourist Accommodation and Restaurant Establishment) Regulations, 2014.

(Under sections 13 and 34 of the Uganda Tourism Act, 2008, Act No. 2 of 2008.)

IN EXERCISE of the powers conferred upon the Minister responsible for tourism by Sections 13 and 34 of the Uganda Tourism Act, 2008, and in consultation with the Board, these Regulations are made this 28th day of June, 2013.

1. Title.

These Regulations may be cited as the Uganda Tourism (Tourist Accommodation and Restaurant Establishment) Regulations, 2014.

2. Interpretation.

In these Regulations, unless the context otherwise requires—

“Act” means the Uganda Tourism Act, 2008, Act No. 2 of 2008;

“accommodation agreement” means the agreement made between the management of a tourist accommodation and the tourist;

“Board” means the Uganda Tourism Board;

“proprietor” means an individual or entity that accommodates or provides meals to tourists for remuneration;

“tourist” means a person that travels to and stays in a place outside their usual environment for not more than one consecutive year for leisure, business and other purposes not related to the exercise of an activity remunerated from within the place visited;

“tourist accommodation” refers to any category of accommodation specified in regulation 3.

3. Categorization of tourist accommodation.

Tourist accommodation shall, for the purposes of registration with the Board, be categorized as follows—

- (a) caravan park;
- (b) camping park;
- (c) cottage;
- (d) eco lodge;
- (e) guest house;
- (f) home stay;
- (g) hostel;
- (h) hotel;
- (i) lodge;
- (j) motel;
- (k) safari or tented camp;
- (l) serviced apartments; or
- (m) villa.

4. Accommodation agreement.

A tourist who seeks to use tourist premises for accommodation shall enter into an accommodation agreement with the management of a tourist accommodation upon agreeing to the terms and conditions of the tourist accommodation.

5. Registration of a tourist.

(1) A tourist renting a room in a tourist accommodation shall register with the management of a tourist accommodation using his or her true name except in exceptional circumstances as the management of a tourist accommodation may determine.

(2) A tourist registering for accommodation with a tourist accommodation shall produce a valid identification and any other information that is required by the management of a tourist accommodation.

(3) The management of a tourist accommodation shall keep a register in the tourist accommodation premises which shall be available at all reasonable times for inspection by a lawful agent or a law enforcement officer and this register shall include—

- (a) the name and address of the tourist;
- (b) the room number in which the tourist is booked;
- (c) the country of origin of the tourist;
- (d) the purpose of the visit of the tourist; and
- (e) the date of arrival and departure of the tourist from the tourist accommodation.

(4) Where the tourist is a minor, the management of a tourist accommodation shall require a guardian of the minor to register and accept in writing liability for the expenses and liabilities of the minor at the tourist accommodation.

(5) A person in charge of the tourist accommodation register shall verify and only record the information he or she knows to be accurate in the register.

6. Substitute accommodation.

(1) Where a tourist has made a booking and the management of a tourist accommodation are not in position to accommodate him or her, the management of a tourist accommodation shall as far as practicable, provide the tourist with adequate substitute accommodation of comparable standard to the one the tourist had booked in a case where—

- (a) the room of the tourist becomes unusable;
- (b) the tourist accommodation is overbooked; or
- (c) any other unforeseen circumstances occur.

(2) Where an extra expense arises from substitution of accommodation under sub regulation (1), the expense shall be met by the proprietor of the tourist accommodation, the tourist had previously booked.

7. Extension of the accommodation period.

(1) A tourist who wishes to extend his or her stay at a tourist accommodation shall inform the management of a tourist accommodation within twenty four hours of his or her intention to extend the duration of his or her stay.

(2) The management of a tourist accommodation, may consent to the extension of the accommodation period.

(3) Where the tourist is prevented from leaving the tourist accommodation on the date of departure, as a result of blocked or unusable means of transport from the hotel to the tourist's destination, the period of accommodation shall be extended for the duration of the prevention from departure.

8. No show at the tourist accommodation.

A tourist who makes a booking and does not show up at the tourist accommodation without prior notice to the management of a tourist accommodation, shall not be entitled to a refund of his or her booking or any other fees already paid.

9. Sickness or death of a tourist at the tourist accommodation.

(1) The management of tourist accommodation shall have adequate first aid medical services at the tourist accommodation.

(2) All expenses incurred for the treatment of a tourist shall be met by the tourist.

(3) The Estate of a tourist who dies while a guest at the tourist accommodation, shall be liable for medical expenses and expenses incidental to his or her treatment during his or her accommodation at the tourist accommodation.

10. Accommodation for an animal of a tourist.

(1) A tourist may bring an animal to the tourist accommodation—

(a) with the prior consent of the management of a tourist accommodation; and

- (b) where the terms and conditions of the management of a tourist accommodation permit animals at the tourist accommodation.

(2) A tourist who brings an animal to the tourist accommodation shall—

- (a) keep it in a designated place provided by the hotel;
- (b) keep it away from the lounge, salon, restaurant and wellness zones; and
- (c) have animal liability insurance or personal liability insurance that covers any potential damage caused or that may be caused by the animal to other guests or to the tourist accommodation premises.

(3) A tourist shall provide evidence of the animal liability insurance or personal liability insurance referred to in sub regulation (2)(c) to the management of a tourist accommodation.

11. Termination of accommodation.

(1) The management of a tourist accommodation shall terminate the accommodation of a tourist where—

- (a) the tourist fails to pay the accommodation fee agreed upon in the accommodation agreement;
- (b) the tourist fails to fulfill the terms, conditions and clauses of the accommodation agreement;
- (c) the tourist conducts himself or herself in a manner which is intolerable by other guests and by the management of a tourist accommodation; or
- (d) the tourist suffers from a contagious or a fatal ailment which cannot be contained or treated by the management of a tourist accommodation.

(2) A tourist may terminate his or her accommodation with the tourist accommodation where the management of a tourist accommodation fails to meet its agreed obligations to the tourist under the accommodation agreement.

(3) Where a tourist terminates his or her accommodation with the tourist accommodation prematurely because of reasons under subregulation (2) the management of a tourist accommodation, shall refund the tourist's money.

12. Removal of a person from the tourist accommodation.

The management of a tourist accommodation shall remove a person from the tourist accommodation premises—

- (a) who causes unnecessary disturbance to other persons on the premises; or
- (b) who damages or destroys property belonging to or in use by the tourist accommodation.

13. Rights of the tourist.

A tourist shall have the right to use all tourist accommodation facilities which he or she has access to as agreed upon in the accommodation agreement without unreasonable restriction.

14. Obligations of the tourist.

(1) A tourist shall pay the agreed accommodation fee and any additional fee that may arise from the use of a special service at the tourist accommodation.

(2) A tourist shall take good care of the tourist accommodation property.

(3) A tourist who damages or loses the tourist accommodation property shall compensate the tourist accommodation an equivalent of the value of the damaged or lost property.

15. Obligations of the management of a tourist accommodation.

The management of a tourist accommodation shall provide the agreed service to an extent that complies with the generally approved standards of hotels in Uganda as set by the Board.

16. Safe keeping of valuables.

(1) A tourist accommodation shall have a safe or suitable vault in good working condition for the storage of money, bank notes, jewellery, ornaments, documents and other valuables belonging to a tourist.

(2) The management of a tourist accommodation may, by special arrangement with a tourist, receive any property for deposit in the safe, upon any terms that they agree to in writing.

17. Liability of the management of a tourist accommodation.

(1) A tourist intending to be a guest at a tourist accommodation facility, upon delivering any property to the management of a tourist accommodation or to the authorized tourist accommodation employee for safekeeping elsewhere other than in the room assigned to that tourist, shall be issued a receipt for the property .

(2) The management of a tourist accommodation shall be liable for the property of the tourist that has been handed to it or to the authorised employee or deposited in a place for safe keeping by the management of a tourist accommodation.

(3) Where a tourist does not hand over to the management of a tourist accommodation or to an authorised employee or deposit his or her property for safe keeping with the management of a tourist accommodation, the management of a tourist accommodation shall not be liable for the theft or damage of the property.

18. Offences and penalties.

A person who contravenes these Regulations commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding twenty four currency points or imprisonment not exceeding twelve months or both.

2014 No. 49.

The Uganda Tourism (Tour Guide) Regulations, 2014.

(Under section 34 of the Uganda Tourism Act, 2008, Act No. 2 of 2008)

IN EXERCISE of the powers conferred upon the Minister responsible for tourism by section 34 of the Uganda Tourism Act, 2008, and in consultation with the Uganda Tourism Board, these Regulations are made this 28th day of June, 2013.

1. Title.

These Regulations may be cited as the Uganda Tourism (Tour Guide) Regulations, 2014.

2. Interpretation.

In these Regulations, unless the context otherwise requires—

“Act” means the Uganda Tourism Act, 2008;

“Board”, means the Uganda Tourism Board;

“currency point” has the meaning assigned to it in Schedule 1;

“tour guide” means a person registered and licensed to lead a tour itinerary of a person;

“tour operator” means a person by licensed to sell or offer for sale, tour packages either directly or through a third party.

3. Register of persons qualified as tour guides.

(1) The Board shall keep a register of persons who are qualified to act as tour guides and the register shall be open for inspection by the public.

(2) A person who, to the satisfaction of the Board—

- (a) has passed an appropriate examination organised by the Board, to act as a tour guide; or
- (b) possesses a tour guide qualification equivalent to the qualifications approved by the Board, shall be entitled to be enrolled in the register.

(3) A person registered under this Regulation shall be issued with a licence.

(4) An application to register as a tourist guide shall be made to the Board and shall contain the information as in Schedule 2.

(5) A registered tourist guide shall be required by the Board to attend courses organized by the Board or by any person or institution on behalf of the Board for the purpose of their continued professional development.

(6) A registered tour guide who without reasonable cause, does not comply with the provisions of sub regulation 5 shall be cancelled from the register of tour guides.

4. Licence of tour guide.

(1) A person shall not act as a tour guide unless he or she is in possession of a license issued by the Board.

(2) A person shall qualify for a license under this Regulation if he or she proves to the satisfaction of the Board that he or she passed the appropriate examination under sub regulation 3(2).

(3) A person who, on the coming into force of these Regulations, is licensed as a tour guide by the Uganda Tourism Board, shall continue to be licensed as a tour guide under these Regulations.

(4) A license issued under this regulation shall be valid for a period of one year and shall be in the form set out in Schedule 2.

5. Identification document.

(1) The Board shall issue an identification document to a tour guide registered and licensed under these Regulations.

(2) The identification document shall remain the property of the Board and shall be returned to the Board on demand, or on the suspension or revocation of registration or a license issued under these Regulations.

(3) A tour guide shall, at all times, while guiding or conducting an organised tour, wear the identification document on his person.

(4) A person who uses an identification document issued to another person, or who fails to return the identification document when requested by the Board, commits an offence and is liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding twenty four currency points or imprisonment for a term not exceeding twelve months or both.

6. Responsibility of tour guide.

(1) A tour guide shall conduct or guide an organised tour in a professional manner as prescribed in the tour operator guidelines.

(2) An organised tour shall be conducted in accordance with the itinerary set by the tour operator.

(3) A tour guide may, in exceptional circumstances and for a valid reason, vary the itinerary set by the tour operator.

7. Duties of the tour guide.

(1) A tour guide shall—

- (a) render a service to a tourist in accordance with the itinerary set by the tour operator;
- (b) ensure the safety of the tourist;
- (c) furnish a tourist with, up-to-date information on Uganda's socio-economy, government structure, history, culture, nature, people's customs and traditions; and

- (d) provide redress for damage caused in the course of rendering a service to the tourist or the tourism organization which occurs due to the tour guides fault.

(2) A tour guide shall not demand a reward from a tourist.

8. Facilitation of a tour guide.

An tour operator shall provide a tour guide with—

- (a) transport for the conduct of the organised tour;
- (b) a meal when conducting a whole day organised tour;
- (c) an allowance to be agreed upon; and
- (d) entry to a place of interest during the organised tour.

9. Maximum number of persons to guide.

(1) A tour guide shall be in charge of a party of reasonable size depending on the type of the tour, but not more than twenty persons at any one time.

(2) When an organised tour is undertaken by coach, boat or vehicle, a tour guide shall not be in charge of more than one coach, boat or vehicle.

10. Duration of an organised tour.

(1) A tour operator shall engage the services of a tour guide for any of the following—

- (a) a half day tour which shall not exceed six hours;
- (b) a whole day tour which shall not exceed twelve hours, inclusive of the time allowed for lunch;
- (c) a night tour which shall not exceed five hours; or
- (d) a transit tour from one geographical site to another or vice-versa, which shall not exceed twelve hours.

(2) An organised tour shall start at the time when the tour guide reports to commence his or her duties and ends when the last passenger leaves the tour.

11. Cancellation of engagement of tour guide.

(1) The engagement of a tour guide may be subject to an agreement in writing with the tour operator and shall be subject to the following—

- (a) that the tour operator may cancel the engagement of a tour guide within a period of not less than one month prior to the commencement of the organised tour; or
- (b) where the tour guide is not in position to offer the tour operator, the agreed service or a replacement to conduct the organised tour, the tour guide shall inform the operator within a period of not less than one month prior to the commencement of the organised tour.

(2) A person who does not comply with the above provisions without a valid reason, shall pay a fine not exceeding twenty four currency points.

12. Act of God.

(1) A tour operator shall provide a tour guide with adequate board and lodging for an overnight stay and pay him or her additional remuneration as may be agreed between the tour guide and the tour operator, where a tour guide is conducting an organised tour, where a return journey upon the conclusion of the tour cannot be made because of an act of God.

(2) Subject to sub-regulation (1), a tour guide engaged for an organised tour on the following day, who because of the overnight stay cannot honour his or her commitment, shall immediately inform the responsible tour operator.

13. Report by tour guide.

A tour guide shall, submit a detailed written report on the organised tour to the tour operator within two weeks after the end of the tour, or within a longer period as may be agreed with the operator.

14. Fees for organised tour.

(1) The fees to be charged by a tour guide for conducting an organised tour shall be previously agreed upon between the tour guide and the tour operator or the person or an agency engaging the tour guide prior to the conduct of the tour.

(2) Where the tour guide is required to conduct an organised tour in more than one language, he or she shall be paid an extra remuneration as agreed upon by the tour guide and the operator for the additional language used during the tour.

15. Suspension or cancellation of registration or license of a tour guide.

(1) Where the Board is satisfied that a tour guide has—

- (a) behaved in a manner not befitting the duties and responsibilities of a tour guide; or
- (b) acted in contravention of the Act or these Regulations, the Board may suspend or cancel the registration or the license issued to the tour guide.

(2) In case of a suspension referred to in sub-regulation (1), the suspension shall not exceed a period of three years.

16. Registration, renewal, suspension or cancellation of a license.

The Board shall inform the applicant or the licensee—

- (a) before an application for the grant or renewal of a registration or license is denied; or
- (b) before a registration or a license is suspended or cancelled, of its intention and shall give him or her an opportunity to make representations.

18. Offences and penalties.

A person who does not comply with these Regulations, commits an offence, and is on conviction liable to a fine not exceeding twenty four currency points or imprisonment for a term not exceeding twelve months or both.
