THE LEADERSHIP CODE (AMENDMENT) ACT, 2017

An Act to amend the Leadership Code Act, 2002, to give effect to article 235A of the Constitution by providing for the establishment, composition, jurisdiction and functions of the Leadership Code Tribunal; to strengthen the enforcement of the Code and for other related matters.

DATE OF ASSENT: 17th May, 2017.

Date of Commencement: 2nd June, 2017.

BE IT ENACTED by Parliament as follows:

1. Amendment of section 2 of the Leadership Code Act, 2002.
The Leadership Code Act, 2002 in this Act referred to as the principal Act is amended in section 2—

(a) by inserting immediately after the definition of “Government” the following—

“gift” means anything of value or benefit given to a leader directly or indirectly, gratuitously or solicited in his or her official capacity at a public or ceremonial occasion;

“Inspectorate” means the Inspectorate of Government;

“public office” means an office in the public service.

“public officer” means a person holding or acting in any public office;

“public service” means service in a civil capacity of the Government or of a local government;

- (b) by inserting immediately after the definition of “spouse” the following—

“Tribunal” means the Leadership Code Tribunal established under section 19A;”.

2. Replacement of section 3 of the principal Act.

For section 3 of the principal Act there is substituted the following—

“3. Enforcement of the Code.

The Leadership Code shall be enforced by the Inspectorate and the Tribunal.”

3. Insertion of section 3A in the principal Act.

The principal Act is amended by inserting immediately after section 3 the following new section—

“3A. Functions of the Inspectorate.

In enforcing this Code, the Inspectorate shall carryout the following functions—

- (a) receive, examine and verify declarations lodged with it under this Code;
- (b) investigate or cause an investigation to be conducted into any alleged breach of this Code by a leader;
- (c) make a report on any breach of this Code and refer the matter to the Tribunal for adjudication;

- (d) prosecute breaches of the Code before the Tribunal;
- (e) make a report to the Directorate of Public Prosecutions on offences committed under the Code;
- (f) recommend awards, disbursements and such payments or rewards as it may consider appropriate in connection with any assistance rendered in the enforcement of this Code;
- (g) collaborate with other Government agencies to facilitate the enforcement of this Code;
- (h) investigate the actions or omissions of a former leader for breach of this Code; and
- (i) carry out any other functions prescribed under this Code.”

4. Replacement of section 4 of the principal Act.

For section 4 of the principal Act there is substituted the following—

“4. Declaration of income, assets and liabilities.

(1) A leader shall—

- (a) within three months after the commencement of this Code; and
- (b) thereafter every two years, during the month of March—

submit to the Inspectorate a written declaration of the leader’s income, assets and liabilities in the prescribed form.

(2) A person shall—

- (a) within three months after becoming a leader; and

- (b) thereafter every two years, during the month of March—

submit to the Inspectorate a written declaration of his or her income, assets and liabilities in the prescribed form.

(3) A leader shall before the expiration of his or her term of office declare his or her income, assets and liabilities, if his or her term of office expires six months after his or her last declaration.

(4) A leader shall state how he or she acquired or incurred, as the case may be, the income, assets or liabilities included in a declaration submitted to the Inspectorate.

(5) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, a leader shall only declare income, assets or liabilities—

- (a) in which he or she has an interest, or
- (b) which is owned by any other person but was, with or without consideration, bequeathed, donated, sold, assigned, transferred by the leader having been declared as his or her income, assets or liabilities in a preceding declaration.

(6) In this section, a leader shall be taken to have an interest where—

- (a) in case of an income or assets—
  - (i) it is owned by the leader;
  - (ii) it is jointly owned by the leader with any other person;
  - (iii) it is held in trust by the leader for any other person; or

(iv) it is contained in a joint account for the benefit of the leader and any other person.

(b) in case of a liability, it was acquired, guaranteed or is payable by the leader on his or her behalf or on behalf of any other person.

(7) A leader shall ensure that all the information contained in the declaration submitted to the Inspectorate is true and correct to the best of his or her knowledge.

(8) Where possible, a declaration shall be accompanied by proof of ownership of the income, assets or liabilities contained in the declaration.

(9) A leader, who without justifiable cause, submits a declaration to the Inspectorate any time after the period prescribed in subsections (1) and (2) commits a breach of this Code.”

5. Insertion of sections 4A, 4B, 4C and 4D in the principal Act.
The principal Act is amended by inserting immediately after section 4 the following—

“4A. Declaration of income, assets and liabilities to accounting officer.

(1) A public officer, to whom section 4 of this Code does not apply, shall—

(a) within three months of commencing work in the public service; and

(b) thereafter, every two years,

submit to the accounting officer or the head of the Ministry, department or agency, a written declaration of his or her income, assets and liabilities.

(2) Notwithstanding subsection (1), a public officer shall only declare income, assets and liabilities in which he or she has an interest.

(3) In this section, a public officer shall be taken to have an interest where—

(a) in case of income and assets—

(i) it is owned by the public officer;

(ii) it is jointly owned by the public officer with any other person;

(iii) it is held in trust by the public officer for any other person; or

(iv) it is contained in a joint account for the benefit of the public officer and any other person.

(b) in case of a liability, it was acquired, guaranteed or is payable by the public officer on his or her behalf or on behalf of any other person.

(4) A public officer making a declaration under this section shall ensure that all the information contained in the declaration to the accounting officer or the head of the Ministry, department or agency submitted is true and correct to the best of his or her knowledge.

(5) The accounting officer or the head of the Ministry, department or agency to whom a declaration is made under subsection (1) shall keep the information contained in the declaration confidential and shall not disclose it to any person.

(6) The accounting officer or the head of the Ministry, department or agency to whom a declaration is made under subsection (1) shall examine the declaration and if he or she has reason to believe that the public officer is in possession of income or assets disproportionate to his or her known sources of income, make a reference to the Inspectorate.

(7) The accounting officer or the head of the Ministry, department or agency shall, prior to making a reference to the Inspectorate under subsection (6), require the public officer to account for any matter contained in a declaration submitted to him or her.

(8) The Inspectorate shall, within thirty days of receipt of the reference in subsection (6), investigate the reference and take any action as authorised by this Code or any other law.

(9) The accounting officer or the head of the Ministry, department or agency shall, in taking any decision under this section, comply with the rules of natural justice.

(10) A public officer aggrieved by the decision of the accounting officer or the head of the Ministry, department or agency may apply to the High Court for redress.

(11) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary, no action shall be taken against a public officer based on any matter set out in the reference under subsection (6), until it has been adjudicated by the Tribunal or as the case may be, as directed by the Inspectorate.

(12) In this section, accounting officer means a person who is—

- (a) designated or appointed in writing, as Accounting Officer, by the Secretary to the Treasury, to be responsible for a vote; or
