PART II—ACCESS TO A DECLARATION

3. Application for access to contents of declaration.

(1) An application for grant of access to contents of a declaration under the Code shall be made to the Inspectorate in Form 1, specified in Schedule 1, upon payment of the fees prescribed under Schedule 2.

(2) Upon receipt of an application for grant of access to contents of a declaration under the Code, the Inspectorate shall acknowledge receipt of the application in Form 2, specified in Schedule 1.

4. Electronic requests.

Notwithstanding regulation 3, an applicant may make an application by electronic form to the Inspectorate for access to contents of a declaration under the Code.

5. Notification of grant of application.

(1) Where an application for grant of access to contents of a declaration under regulation 3 or 4 is granted, the Inspectorate shall notify the applicant of his or her decision in Form 3, specified in Schedule 1.

(2) Notification under subregulation (1) shall be made within twenty one days of receipt of the application in regulation 3(1) where the Inspectorate shall—

- (a) avail the applicant an opportunity to review the declaration form submitted by the leader;
- (b) issue a certified copy of the declaration to the applicant.

(3) The Inspectorate shall within seven days of issuing a certified copy of the declaration to the applicant under regulation 5(2)(b), inform the leader who made the declaration, of the grant for access to contents of the declaration.

6. Refusal of application.

(1) Where the Inspectorate rejects an application to access contents of a declaration under the Code, the Inspectorate shall within twenty one days of receipt of the application made in regulation 3 or 4, notify the applicant of his or her decision.

(2) The notification under subregulation (1) shall be in Form 4, specified in Schedule 1.

(3) Subject to subregulation (1), the Inspectorate may reject an application for access to contents of a declaration under the Code where—

- (a) the release of the contents of the declaration, is likely to prejudice the security or sovereignty of the State;
- (b) the applicant's reason for requesting for the contents is not satisfactory;
- (c) the application is incomplete;
- (d) the Inspectorate has reason to believe that the contents in the declaration, once accessed may be used in bad faith;

- (e) the disclosure could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of the leader or public officer;
- (f) the disclosure of the record is likely to prejudice or impair the security or safety of the public or a person under a witness protection program.

(4) The Inspectorate shall, where an application is rejected, communicate the reasons for rejection of the application to the applicant.

(5) Where the Inspectorate rejects the application or does not grant access to contents of the declaration within the time prescribed under regulation 3(2), the applicant may apply to a Magistrate court for redress.

PART III—DECLARATION OF INCOME, ASSETS AND LIABILITIES

7. Declaration of income, assets and liabilities to accounting officer.

(1) A public officer, to whom section 4 of the Code does not apply, shall—

- (a) within three months of commencing work in the public service; and
- (b) thereafter, every two years,

submit to the accounting officer or the head of a ministry, department or agency, a written declaration of his or her income, assets and liability.

(2) The declaration made under subregulation (1), shall be in Form 5, specified in Schedule 1.

(3) Upon receipt of a declaration under subregulation (1), the accounting officer shall acknowledge receipt of the application in Form 6, specified in Schedule 1.

(4) Notwithstanding subregulation (1), a public officer shall only declare income, assets and liabilities in which he or she has interest.

(5) Subject to subregulation (1), a public officer shall be taken to have an interest where—

(a) in case of income and assets—

(i) it is owned by the public officer;

(ii) it is jointly owned by the public officer with any other person;

(iii) it is held in trust by the public officer for any other person; or

(iv) it is contained in a joint account for the benefit of the public officer and any other person;

(b) in case of a liability, it was acquired, guaranteed or is payable by the public officer on his or behalf or on behalf of any other person.

(6) A public officer making a declaration under the Code or these Regulations shall ensure that all the information contained in the declaration to the accounting officer or the head of a ministry, department or agency submitted is true and correct to the best of his or her knowledge.

8. Examination of declaration.

(1) The accounting officer or the head of a ministry, department or agency to whom a declaration is made under regulation 7, shall examine the declaration and if he or she has reason to believe that the public officer is in possession of income or assets disproportionate to his or her known sources of income, make a reference to the inspectorate.

(2) Where the accounting officer has conducted an examination of a declaration by a public officer under regulation 7, the accounting officer may call for representation of the public officer, to account for any matter contained in his or her declaration, where it is found that the declaration made by the public officer is disproportionate to his or her income or assets.

(3) Where no evidence is adduced by a public officer under subregulation (2), the accounting officer shall refer the declaration by the public officer to the Inspectorate.

(4) The accounting officer of a ministry, department or agency shall, in taking any decision under the Code or these Regulations comply with the rules of natural justice.

9. Declarations referred to Inspectorate.

(1) The inspectorate shall, within thirty days of receipt of a reference in regulation 8, investigate the reference and take any action in accordance with the Code and other applicable laws.

(2) Notwithstanding subregulation (1), no action shall be taken against a public officer whose declaration has been referred to the Inspectorate under subregulation (3), unless the Tribunal has made a ruling on the matter.

10. Appeal.

A public officer aggrieved by a decision under the Code or these Regulations, may within thirty days from the date of that decision, appeal to the High Court.

2018 No. 12.

The Uganda National Bureau of Standards (Use of Distinctive Mark) Regulations, 2018.

(Under section 43 of the Uganda National Bureau of Standards Act, Cap. 327)

IN EXERCISE of the powers conferred upon the Minister responsible for commerce by section 43 of the Uganda National Bureau of Standards Act, and on the recommendation of the National Standards Council, these Regulations are made this 23rd day of March, 2018.

PART I—PRELIMINARY

1. Title.

These Regulations may be cited as the Uganda National Bureau of Standards (Use of Distinctive Mark) Regulations, 2018.

2. Interpretation.

In these Regulations, unless the context otherwise requires—

“Act” means the Uganda National Bureau of Standards Act, Cap. 327;

“applicant” means an importer or manufacturer applying for use of a distinctive mark;

“assessment” means a systematic and independent examination to determine whether compulsory standard specifications requirements have been met;

“Bureau” means the Uganda National Bureau of Standards established under section 2 of the Act;

“commodity” means any article, product or thing which is or will ultimately be the subject of trade or use;

“compulsory standard specification” means the standard specification declared under section 18 of the Act;

- “consignment” means an aggregation of commodities made under a common system of causes and presented for inspection;
- “currency point” has the value assigned to it in Schedule 1;
- “director” means the director of the Bureau appointed under section 11 of the Act;
- “distinctive mark” means a mark declared as such under section 18 of the Act;
- “domestic manufacturer” means a person manufacturing a commodity within Uganda;
- “distributor” means a person in the supply chain other than the manufacturer or importer, who makes a commodity covered by a compulsory standard specification declared under Section 18 of the Act, available on the Ugandan market;
- “importer” means a person who brings into Uganda a commodity covered by a compulsory standard specification declared under Section 18 of the Act;
- “inspector” means a person appointed as an inspector under section 13 of the Act;
- “inspection” means the examination of commodity design, commodity, process or its installation and determination of its conformity with specific requirements;
- “inspection report” means a report compiled by an inspector detailing the findings of the inspection;
- “manufacturer” means any natural or legal person who manufactures a commodity covered under compulsory standard specifications using their own or outsourced manufacturing facilities; and
- “surveillance audits” means periodic evaluation of a quality control system or a commodity to determine conformity with a relevant standard and the terms and conditions of the permit.

PART II—DISTINCTIVE MARK ON A COMMODITY

3. Commodity to conform and bear distinctive mark.

(1) A person shall not import, distribute, manufacture, sell or have in his or her possession or control for sale or distribution any commodity for which a compulsory standard specification has been declared, unless the commodity conforms to the compulsory standard specification under section 18 of the Act.

(2) A person shall not import, distribute, sell or have in his or her possession or control for sale or distribution any commodity for which a compulsory standard specification has been declared unless the commodity bears the distinctive mark specified in Schedule 2.

(3) Where difficulties arise in having a commodity marked with the distinctive mark prior to importation as required under subsection (2), the director may authorise in writing any intending importer of the commodity to have the commodity marked immediately on arrival in Uganda.

4. Permit for distinctive mark to complying commodities.

(1) A person shall not apply a distinctive mark to any commodity except under a permit issued by the council or a person acting under the authority of the council and unless the commodity complies with or has been manufactured in accordance with the relevant standard specification.

(2) An application for a permit under subsection (1) shall be made to the council or a person acting under the authority of the council in a manner prescribed in these Regulations.

PART III—APPLICATION FOR A DISTINCTIVE MARK

5. Application for a permit to use a distinctive mark.

(1) An importer or manufacturer who intends to bring into Uganda or manufacture a commodity for which a compulsory standard specification is declared under section 18 of the Act shall apply to the council or a person acting under the authority of the council for a permit to use a distinctive mark.

(2) The council or a person acting under the authority of the council shall issue a permit to use a distinctive mark on a commodity for which a compulsory standard specification has been declared to a manufacturer or importer where all the requirements of these Regulations have been met.

(3) The permit to use a distinctive mark shall be valid for a period of twelve months from the date on which it is issued.

(4) The council may, at any time, vary the conditions of a permit granted under these Regulations.

(5) The Bureau shall maintain and publish a register of manufacturers and importers permitted to use a distinctive mark.

6. Application procedure for a domestic manufacturer.

(1) A domestic manufacturer of a commodity for which a compulsory standard specification is declared shall apply to the council or a person acting under the authority of the council for a permit to use a distinctive mark before commencement of production of the commodity or within 60 working days of the coming into force of these Regulations.

(2) An application by a domestic manufacturer for a permit to use a distinctive mark shall be made in Form A, specified in Schedule 3.

(3) The application for a permit to use a distinctive mark shall be accompanied by the fee specified in Schedule 4.

(4) An inspector shall inspect and assess the manufacturing facility of a domestic manufacturer who has applied for a permit to use a distinctive mark and all commodities covered by the compulsory standard specification to verify that the production, quality assurance processes and commodities conform to the requirements of the compulsory standard specification.

(5) For the purposes of sub regulation (4), the applicant shall provide all reasonable facilities to the inspector to assess the commodity, the manufacturing facility or other premises of the applicant for the purposes of verifying documents submitted by the applicant and of obtaining any other information relevant to the application.

(6) The council or a person acting under the authority of the council on application for a permit to use the distinctive mark under this regulation, shall grant a permit where it is satisfied that—

- (a) the commodity in respect of which an application is being made conforms to the compulsory standard specification;
- (b) the applicant has a functional system of commodity recall; and
- (c) the applicant has an up-to-date record of the quality control system, including inspection and testing which adequately ensures that the commodity conforms to the relevant standard.

7. Application procedure for an importer.

(1) An importer of a commodity for which a compulsory standard specification is declared shall, in respect of each consignment, apply to the council or a person acting under the authority of the council for a permit to use a distinctive mark before importing the commodity into Uganda.

(2) An application by an importer for a permit to use a distinctive mark shall be made in the in Form B, specified in Schedule 3.

(3) The application for a permit to use a distinctive mark shall be accompanied by the fee specified in Schedule 4.

(4) The council or a person acting under the authority of the council may, on application for a permit to use the distinctive mark under this regulation, grant a permit that shall be valid for a period of twelve months on being satisfied that—

- (a) the commodity in respect of which an application is being made conforms to the compulsory standard specification; and
- (b) the applicant has an up-to-date record of the quality control system, including inspection and testing which adequately ensures that the commodity conforms to the relevant standard.

(5) The council or a person acting under the authority of the council shall in accordance with Section 22 of the Act, require the importer to whom a permit has been issued, to submit for examination or testing, a sample of the commodity in respect of which the permit has been granted to ensure that the commodity meets the declared compulsory standard specification, before issuing the distinctive mark stickers.

8. Refusal to grant permit.

(1) The council or a person acting under the authority of the council may refuse to issue a permit to use a distinctive mark where—

- (a) the commodity in respect of which an application has been made does not conform to the compulsory standard specification;
- (b) the commodity in respect of which an application has been made has been banned by the Minister under Section 24C of the Act;
- (c) the commodity in respect of which an application has been made is expired; or
- (d) any other requirement under these Regulations has not been complied with.

(2) Where the council or a person acting under the authority of the council refuses to grant a permit to use a distinctive mark, the council or a person acting under the authority of the council shall state the reasons for the refusal in writing and notify the applicant of the refusal within 15 working days.

9. Renewal of permit.

A manufacturer or importer shall apply to the council or a person acting under the authority of the council for the renewal of permit to use a distinctive mark at least three months before the expiry of the permit.

10. Sample testing.

(1) Where a sample is required to make an assessment under these Regulations, an applicant shall provide all reasonable facilities and assistance to the inspectors to draw and get samples of the commodity for testing by the Bureau or other testing laboratory designated by the Bureau in writing as a testing laboratory.

(2) The cost of transporting a sample, instrument, equipment, apparatus, material or any other expense incurred in connection with the assessment under these Regulations shall be incurred by the applicant.

PART IV—TERMS OF USE OF A DISTINCTIVE MARK

11. Use of a distinctive mark on a commodity.

(1) A distinctive mark shall be applied in a visible, legible and indelible manner before a commodity is placed on the market, and shall be in the form specified in Schedule 2.

(2) The distinctive mark may be enlarged or reduced to an appropriate size depending on the size of the commodity on which it is intended to be used.

12. Terms of use of a permit to use a distinctive mark.

(1) A manufacturer or importer shall—

- (a) ensure that the commodity in respect of which a permit to use a distinctive mark has been granted conforms to the compulsory standard specification;
- (b) use a distinctive mark in accordance with the terms and conditions of the permit;
- (c) apply the distinctive mark on a commodity covered by a valid permit; and
- (d) in case of suspension, withdrawal or cancellation of a permit to use the distinctive mark, discontinue its use and immediately withdraw all promotional and advertising material containing any reference to that permit.

(2) A domestic manufacturer shall in addition to the terms for the use of a permit to use a distinctive mark in sub-regulation (1)—

- (a) ensure that any record maintained in relation to the manufacturing process is made available for inspection and shall, at the request of the inspector, allow the removal of the record to the premises of the Bureau for further scrutiny;

- (b) allow an inspector access to the premises where the commodity specified in the permit is manufactured for the purpose of evaluating materials, production processes, finished commodities, quality assurance facilities and records;
- (c) in the case of transfer of plant site, give notice of the transfer to the Bureau, at least 21 working days before the transfer; and
- (d) where there has been any modification in the commodity or manufacturing process, reapply to the council or a person acting under the authority of the council for a permit.

13. Withdrawal or suspension of permit to use a distinctive mark.

The council may, at any time, withdraw or suspend a permit to use a distinctive mark where—

- (a) the commodity does not conform to the compulsory standard specifications;
- (b) the importer or manufacturer does not take corrective action as required by the council;
- (c) the importer or manufacturer uses the distinctive mark or registration number in violation of the permit;
- (d) the commodity has caused damage to a consumer; or
- (e) the importer or manufacturer applies for temporary withdrawal.

14. Cancellation of permit to use a distinctive mark.

The Council may cancel a permit to use a distinctive mark where—

- (a) the importer or manufacturer does not comply with the conditions of the permit;
- (b) the commodity is non-compliant with compulsory standard specifications;
- (c) the production of the commodity has been terminated by the manufacturer or any lawful authority;

- (d) the importer or manufacturer applies to cancel the permit;
- (e) the commodity is not identical to the sample commodity provided by the applicant;
- (f) the importer or manufacturer does not abide by the rules of suspension in the case of a suspension; or
- (g) the council establishes that the importer or manufacturer obtained the permit through an improper manner such as bribery or fraud.

PART V—MISCELLANEOUS

15. Surveillance audits.

(1) The grant of permit to use a distinctive mark shall be followed by surveillance audits.

(2) The surveillance audits may be conducted without notice.

(3) The council or a person acting under the authority of the council may make a special surveillance audit, where the permit holder fails to observe the conditions of the permit or where there have been significant changes in the organisation of the importer or manufacturer.

16. Offences.

A person who—

- (a) uses a distinctive mark without a permit from the council or a person acting under the authority of the council;
- (b) falsely represents a commodity to be a commodity that complies with the provisions of these Regulations;
- (c) having been granted a permit for a distinctive mark applies that mark after the permit has expired or has been withdrawn, suspended or cancelled;
- (d) applies a distinctive mark otherwise than in accordance with the conditions of his or her permit;

- (e) refuses to produce before an inspector any document, commodity, material, ingredient, component or substance which has is required under these Regulations;
- (f) obstructs, assaults or insults an inspector or person assisting the inspector in the performance of his or her duty;
- (g) fails to comply with any reasonable requirement made of him or her by an inspector to enable the inspector to perform his or her duties under these Regulations;
- (h) fails to give an inspector any information or assistance under this these Regulations; or
- (i) wilfully removes, destroys or renders illegible or undecipherable or incapable of identification any document, mark or writing with a view to preventing it from being used as evidence in any investigations under these Regulations, commits an offence and shall on conviction be liable to a fine not exceeding five hundred currency points or imprisonment not exceeding five years or both and in the case of a second or subsequent offence, a fine not exceeding five hundred currency points or imprisonment not exceeding three years or both.

17. Appeals.

- (1) A person aggrieved by—
 - (a) the refusal to issue a permit;
 - (b) the conditions of a permit;
 - (c) the withdrawal, suspension or cancellation of a permit; or
 - (d) the variation of any conditions on a permit, may within fourteen days of his or her being informed of that action, appeal in writing to the Minister through the director.

(2) The director shall within fourteen days forward the appeal to the Minister with such comments as he or she may think fit.
